To Mrs. B. A. Russell

CHARITY

*Perhaps my faith is like my race,
An accident of birth
Determined only by the place
Where first I came to earth.
So for the faiths of every land,
Though many they may be,
If some I cannot understand,
Lord, give me charity.*

*The faith my fathers died to keep,
The quest for God and life,
Took them o'er mountains high and steep;
Through struggle, stress and strife,
They served their God as they knew how,
In fashion strange to me;
But if I cannot take their vow,
Lord, give me charity.*

*And if my neighbors go to church
To learn a different creed;
For God in other ways to search,
And seek the help they need;
Although their forms to me seem odd,
Their ways too far to see,
If through their prayers they come to God,
Lord, give me charity.*

*Had I been born 'neath China's skies,
To ancestors I'd pray;
Had India met my opening eyes,
I'd bow to Brahma's sway.
The creed I hold derives its plan
From where I chance to be.
So when I judge my fellow man,
Lord, give me charity.*

Southern State College emerges from Southern Arkansas with knowledge and foresight in the minds of the administrators and students to give it a distinct air of pride. The campus maintains an invitation to any and all to partake of "Life" material for present and future use, with many challenges and opportunities open to the partakers. The challenges of leaving the security of home, developing an individual independence, and meeting academic standards bring fascinating returns of growth and maturity. Opportunities of participating in social activities and watching people who were once complete strangers become loyal friends make college life a wonderful and penetrating experience.

The learner's desire for knowledge is met through well equipped academic and administrative buildings, and individual library study. Adequate facilities with qualified instructors are provided for the students to achieve their academic goals and thus continue the never ending search for higher education that will produce an educated personality.

Campus construction

The increasing enrollment and rising stature of Southern State College has made additional campus construction necessary. With the completion of two new men's dorms and two more dorms now under construction; the resurfacing of the campus streets and additional sidewalks constructed, we can proudly say that our college, like its students, is preparing for the future.

GOVERNOR ORVAL E. FAUBUS is now serving his sixth term as Governor of Arkansas. Governor Faubus and his Advisory Committee have worked toward advancement of education in Arkansas and the improvement of all state school systems.

To the Students of Southern State College:

It is a pleasure for me to extend greetings to all of you in THE MULERIDER issue of 1965. You are attending a very fine institution of higher learning, and I am sure that the education you receive there will equip you well for your future endeavors.

All of us are proud of the improvements that have been made at Southern State, and I have great hopes for even further progress during the next few years.

I wish for all of you a happy school year, academic achievements, and success in the years ahead.

Cordially yours,

Orval E. Faubus
Governor

THE PRESIDENT and HIS MESSAGE

Dear Students, Faculty, and Staff,

We are glad to have you with us during this the 1964-65 academic year. As President of Southern State College, I hope that this year brings to you the pleasure associated with a happy and successful academic year, followed by pleasant memories throughout many years ahead.

I have observed with pride and appreciation your fine work and cooperation in meeting the challenges of this College during a period of rapid growth and exciting and stimulating changes. Your success here and the promise it holds for the future add to the reputation and prestige of Southern State College.

It is my sincere wish for you that your success and happiness will ever increase.

Sincerely yours,

Imon E. Bruce

In addition to training students for careers in the field of business as professional workers, the business and commerce division provides these students with the necessary background for graduate study. Students in the business division may obtain the Bachelor of Business Administration degree with a major in accounting, business administration, economics, or office administration. Departmental advisors attempt to strengthen the students non-vocational background by suggesting electives to suit their individual needs.

ROBERT CAMPBELL
Chairman, Fine Arts Division
B.A., B.M., M.M.

The Division of Fine Arts offers a program leading to the Bachelor of Music degree and two-year programs in the fields of art and art education. The Music students are given the opportunity to develop skills in the use of voice, piano, or orchestral instruments and to obtain a sound knowledge of musical theory and harmony. The Department of Art prepares students in the theory of art appreciation and design as well as the application of aesthetic theory to studio practice. The Fine Arts Department strives to give all students an introduction to the fields of art and music as a part of the general education program.

The Departments of English, Journalism, Modern Foreign Languages, Speech and Philosophy comprise the Humanities Division. By providing the student with a foundation in the basic forms of communication and of logical thinking before he begins specialized study in his chosen field of study, the programs of these departments are designed to contribute to the overall development of the individual. The programs are also designed to enrich the student's intellectual horizon, to arouse in him a lasting interest in the power and beauty of language, to enlarge his appreciation of his cultural heritage, and to develop in him a sympathetic view of the varied peoples and cultures of our world.

The Technical and Professional Division

The division of technical and professional education offers two years of study in the fields of agriculture, forestry, pre-veterinary science, engineering, and home economics. Students in this division prepare for continuation of training at the senior college level. Agriculture students are not only made familiar with the theoretical phase of the work, but they are also given practical experience in the application of this knowledge. The halfway point toward an Engineering degree may be reached, and the home economics curriculum provides the student with the knowledge and techniques necessary for the basis of a degree regardless of the student's planned field of specialization.

Who's Who

in American Colleges and Universities

The idea of creating one national basis of recognition for college students that would be democratic and devoid of cost to the student originated in 1935, when Mr. H. Pettus Randall instituted "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities."

Each year students are nominated from approximately 775 colleges and universities. Selection of nominees is conducted by campus committees and involves a student-faculty-administration participation. Nominating committees are requested to consider the student's scholarship (at SSC a 2.5 grade point is required), his leadership and cooperation in education and extracurricular activities, his general citizenship, and his promise of future usefulness.

Each student who becomes a member receives a certificate of recognition awarded by the organization and presented at the school, recognition in the annual publication for the year during which he was selected, and benefits of the Student Placement Service provided by the organization.

Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities is designed to render greater, though less conspicuous service: as a goal to inspire in those who may not otherwise perform to the best of their ability; as a reminder that time must be used intelligently to bring the best results from one's college experience; as a means of compensation for outstanding efforts and achievement; as a standard of measurement for students comparable to other recognized scholastic and service organizations.

Active participation increases each year through the interest of qualified colleges and universities. Such a history means that there was a place for the organization in universities and colleges at the time it was initiated and that since its establishment, it has filled a need there. With continued cooperation from the schools its future should be one of ever-increasing prestige and service to the student.

MULERIDER editor, Don Myers, has been selected as one of Southern State's most outstanding students. Don is a senior business administration major from DeQueen. He has served as vice-president of Kappa Kappa Psi, president of the Pre-Med and Science Club, layout editor of the MULERIDER, assistant drum major and as a Mulerider Guide. He has been a very active member of the Da Capo Club, Concert Choir, Town and Gown Choir, Band and the Varsitorians. He has served on the Men's Council and in the Student Senate. Also he has been a member of Tri-C and Stagecrafters.

GEORGE WILLIAM PICKLER

George Pickler, a senior business administration major from Taylor, is another of our outstanding students. George has belonged to the Tri-C for three years and has served as vice-president in charge of membership. When George entered Southern State he received a FFA scholarship. He was a member of the agriculture club for two years.

BERNADETTE POST

A junior Elementary Education major from Hot Springs, Bernadette Post, has contributed much during her years here. She has been a member of Phi Sigma Chi, SNEA, vice-president of the Newman Club, and a member of Associated Women Students. Bernadette has also been a member of the Women's Recreation Association and of the Psychology Club.

JACK B. POWELL

Another of our outstanding students, Jack Powell, is a Physical Education major from Stamps. During his years here he has participated in track and football. Jack was vice-president of the "S" Club and of the Physical Education Majors Club. He belonged to the SNEA and the AEA. He reigned as Harvest Carnival King over one of our annual Harvest Festivals.

JERRY W. PYLE

Former Young Democrat president, Jerry Pyle, is a senior history major from Magnolia. He is a receiver of the Danforth Award, has served as vice-president of both Phi Alpha Theta and Pi Delta Phi, and is a member of Alpha Chi.

LUCY KAREN
RANDOLPH

Attending SSC on a voice scholarship is Karen Randolph, a junior music major from Magnolia. A very active coed, Karen has served as treasurer and vice-president of the Da Capo Club, librarian of the Concert Choir, and the Town and Gown Choir, president of the Blue Key Club, as a Mulerider Guide, as a member of the Student Senate and the BSU. She has performed in the Chorus in Carmen, and as soloist in several performances by both choirs. She has, in addition, served as a member of the Cultural Arts Committee.

LEONARD SHARP

Host of the New Dorm, Leonard Sharp, is another outstanding senior chosen for Who's Who. An Industrial Management major from Nashville, Leonard has been a member of Tri-C and the Engineering Club.

RONNIE W. SMITH

Accounting major Ronnie Smith of Hope is an outstanding student on our campus. Ronnie has been a member of the Blue Key Club, student Senate, and Tri-C. He has served as Talbot Hall's vice-president and was undergraduate assistant in the Business Department. In addition to this, Ronnie participated in intramural football and basketball.

PHYLLIS ELAINE
TAYLOR

An outstanding student in Education from Magnet Cove is Phyllis Taylor. She was vice-president of the Student National Education Association, a member of Missionary Baptist Student Fellowship, of the Association of Women Students and of the Town and Gown Choir.

MARY BETH THOMPSON

Who's Who is proud to claim Mary Beth Thompson in their edition this year. A speech major, Mary Beth is a member of Sigma Tau Delta, Alpha Chi, and Alpha Psi Omega. This outstanding student from Gurdon has also been a member of the Women's Honor Society, Stagecrafters, Student Senate, Association of Women Students, and the Association of Baptist Students.

BRENDA M. WELLS

This year's president of the Association of Women Students is Brenda Wells. A senior from Camden she is an Elementary Education major. Brenda holds membership in Alpha Chi, Phi Sigma Chi, Alpha Psi Omega, and Pi Delta Phi. She is a member of the Senior Women's Honor Society.

With the clashing of bodies and helmets on a lighted field of grass, the SSC team slaughtered the College of Ozarks 28 to 0.

The occasion was Southern State's homecoming and the highlight of the evening was not the glare of the bright lights on the field, but the grace of the Homecoming Queen and the members of her court as they paraded on the field to receive the honors placed on them by the players.

Diane Kennedy, dressed in a beige-gold suit, was crowned. The maids of honor in beautiful array were Barbara Hutcheson, Mary Bowman, Charlotte Byrd, and Linda Nutt.

Queen Diane received traditional flowers from the students' representative, Dean Talley; and retired to the royal box with her court to continue enthusiastic cheering for the men in Blue and Gold.

Aardvark '65

Beauty finalists pose for judges in the evening gown competition during the Miss Southern Bell Contest.

Charles Burton, master of ceremonies, proved to be a real master of wit.

Entertaining it was with Bonnie Belle as the "stripper" and Bob Stewart as the "blind" piano player.

Climaxing the Who's Who Contest was the annual presentation of Aardvark. Aardvark is a successful, entertaining way of selecting from the "Ten Most Beautiful Women" on campus the one that will reign as Miss Southern Belle.

Danny Thomason, with a picture of the Eiffel Tower in the background, set the theme of the show with the song "I Love Paris."

Following was a parade of the beauties in skirts and sweaters, and later in full length gowns in a variety of colors and styles. The top ten were: Charlene Doty, Linda Shinn, Becky McWilliams, Cathy Coleman, Barbara Hutcherson, Diane Kennedy, Charlotte Byrd, Karen Moore, Linda Nutt, and Donna Smith.

First and second runner-ups, Miss Donna Smith and Miss Becky McWilliams pose with Miss Southern Belle, Miss Barbara Hutcherson.

Behind the scenes the girls made every second count as they prepared for the next time up.

Miss Mary Beth Thompson performs a solo with the Paris theme.

Interspersing the entrance and exits of the girls were numerous acts that were full, in their own turn, of humor, music, dance, and drama.

Some of the entertainers were Barbara Riggins, Bonnie Belle, Al Cheli, Hogan Cooper, Bob Stewart, "Dixielanders," "You Name-Its," Mary Beth Thompson, Clyde Jordan, and a host of other SSC students who worked hard to make this year's Aardvark the greatest ever.

The judges accomplished a difficult task; and Charles Burton, the master of ceremonies, did a delightful job of helping build the suspense.

Finally though, the "Master Burton" released to the audience the results; and Barbara Hutcheson was crowned Miss Southern Belle.

Clyde Jordan, the "sanest man in town" prepares to do Mozart's Third Concerto.

The Fine Arts

Southern State College and the surrounding area provide an unlimited number of cultural opportunities. On campus, students enjoy a cultural arts series and excellent performances of the best of choral music by the Concert Choir and the Town and Gown Choir. The Concert Band presents the best of orchestra compositions in fall and spring concerts. During the year individual students and the Concert Choir represented Southern State on the Channel 12 television program, College Music Hall. The South Arkansas Symphony includes college students and faculty musicians. In cooperation with the English Department, the Cameo Theater of Magnolia has begun a series of Cultural Arts Films to be presented throughout the year. In addition to the activities on campus, the Shreveport Repertory Opera Company presents twelve concerts each year featuring ballet, opera, full orchestra and guest artists. The El Dorado Community Concert Series brings to the area such famous artists as Ferrante and Teicher and the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra. Next year Peter Nero and the Chicago Opera Ballet will be featured there.

Town and Gown Choir

Feature vocalists, Fredrica Silvey and Lucy Karen Randolph, perform one of their duets during the performance of the annual Christmas Concert.

Mr. Kermit Breen, directing choir in concert.

The Southern State College Town and Gown Choir is a campus coral organization which accepts any one in the Magnolia area who sings, regardless of experience or ability. Singers are drawn from the community as well as from faculty and students.

The choir, under the direction of Kermit T. Breen, presents two concerts annually, one at Christmas and another in the spring.

Except for the performance given at Christmas, only major works are done and no short pieces are included.

The Town and Gown Choir used to be the general campus choir until three years ago, when the smaller Concert Choir was created. The group meets once each week for a two-hour rehearsal and academic credit is given to participating students.

Rece Saxon Price, a mezzo soprano from Little Rock, Arkansas was the guest soloist for the Christmas concert.

Concert Choir

Richard Oliver
Conductor

The Southern State College 65 piece concert band presented concerts on campus for the music lovers of the area. The home concerts have become a big "drawing card" for high school bandmen and their directors in southwest Arkansas, along with many out of town guests.

Twelve members of this years concert band were selected as All-State College bandmen to participate in the Arkansas Inter-collegiate Band under the direction of Dr. William Revelli.

The band was presented at high school assembly programs later in the year when they took their annual tour of south Arkansas.

There are 25 Arkansas cities and 5 different states represented with bandmen. One student is from Thailand.

The Southern State College Concert Choir was organized three years ago by Kermit T. Breen, director of vocal music. The group consists of thirty-six voices selected from members of the larger Town and Gown Choir and membership is considered an honor. The participants include the music majors studying at Southern State College. Every member spends a minimum of five hours each week in rehearsal.

The Concert Choir has done much public relations work for the college. Each year a Christmas concert and a spring concert are presented plus many incidental programs in the community. During the early spring the choir goes on a tour generally lasting from three to five days and usually including the central and southern half of the state.

The Concert Choir also does work in the field of opera; it has been invited by the Shreveport Symphony Opera Company to do chorus work for several performances. The most recent success of the Shreveport Symphony was the presentation of "Carmen" in Magnolia, Arkansas last spring.

This spring the choir independently presented "The Marriage of Figaro," with major roles being sung by Southern State voice majors.

The Concert Choir tries to present the best of choral literature, performing sixteenth to twentieth century concert music and sometimes including Broadway material.

The Cultural Arts Series and Lectures Series

The Cultural Arts Series and the Lecture Series of this year presented to the students of Southern State a series of fine Cultural Arts artists and well-known lecturers.

This year the chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, Senator William Fulbright and Senator John McClellan spoke to large audiences about important matters of our governmental system.

Arkansas poet Edsel Ford gave a talk on the renaissance of writing in Arkansas and read selections of his own writings.

Cultural Artists this year included soprano Marjorie Hayward Madey with selections of songs and arias from the Baroque period to the present; Marta Becket, dance mime; Phyllis Young, cello, and Verna Harder, piano, from the University of Texas; and John Savory, an English concert pianist. Also presented were two concerts by the South Arkansas Symphony conducted by Dr. Eloy Fominaya, and one by the Second Air Force Band from Barksdale Air Force Base conducted by Chief Warrant Officer Eugene E. Rosheger.

Music

The Department of Music offers the Bachelor of Arts degree in music, the Bachelor of Music degree, and the Bachelor of Science in music education. The purpose of this department is to develop in students a high level of technical skill in the use of voice, piano, or orchestral instruments; and to give them a sound knowledge of music theory and harmony and the ability to combine musical theory with technical skills as a basis of sound musicianship.

Art

The Art Department of Southern State College was designed to train students in the theory of art appreciation, art history, and design and in the application of aesthetic theory to studio practice in such media as charcoal, water color, oil, pen-and-ink, clay, wood, stone, and fabrics. An exceptionally full two-year program is available toward an art major, and a choice between an art minor and a specialization area is offered to those interested.

Student Senate

The Student Senate is the representative unit within the student body which strives to represent the opinions and ideas of all students at every campus level. To insure equal representation for all, members are elected from the various clubs, dormitories, and councils on campus. The executive officers are elected every spring by the student body at large.

This year the Senate has been successful in all of its undertakings. Starting with $2,000, the Senate has spent over $15,000 on activities varying from dances and free movies to Dad's Day and Religious Emphasis Week. The concert of popular recording artists on campus have been most successful. The Johnny Rivers Concert was held in the fall; a combination concert of Bobby Goldsboro and Johnny Tillotson and the Beachboys concert were held in the spring. Other activities have included a Homecoming Parade and dance, All-Sports banquet, Willie Mitchel Christmas Dance, Jerry Lee Lewis Dance, and Rider Day.

Mulerider

This year we dispensed with the usual year-book crutch — the theme, and attempted to picture Southern State in another way. It has been a rather difficult task to capture in 240 pages of words and pictures a story of this school year's growth and progress.

In addition to this alteration of past procedure, other changes have been made. For the first time the MULERIDER staff dispensed with the most handsomes and the Who's Who popularity. A new design for our college seal was designed and reproduced in gold medal on our cover. The beauties have been "featured" in a different style in a new section, Features. Another new section was added, Onstage, covering our Cultural Arts Series, lectures, plays, and concerts.

The Editorial Staff hopes that you receive as much enjoyment and satisfaction from the 1965 MULERIDER as we did in putting it together for you.

The Bray

Vol. 40, No. 20 Southern State College, Magnolia, Arkansas, May 1965

Enthusiastic is the word for the 1964-65 BRAY staff, for this was the year when "apathy Arkansas" did not include Southern State College, and from the largest freshman class in the history of the school came one of the largest BRAY staffs.

Perhaps the only Arkansas college student newspaper to be entirely written and printed by students, the BRAY entered its fortieth year struggling to exist, but as the staff grew in experience and enthusiasm, the paper became first "honest, then respectable."

Drawing heavily on the journalism class and even more heavily from the large number of staff members who did not seem to know the meaning of "impossible," the staff has surmounted obstacles which might well have daunted less hardy souls.

The press has broken but Dick Donlin, the printer, has wired it up again; the staff has more than once taken to an electric typewriter when the varityper has broken; and has earned the respect of the student body by producing a good paper on time.

Stagecrafters

The Stagecrafters, one of the most active groups on campus, is co-sponsored by Margaret Harton and Neil Bibler. Its members' talents are utilized during several dramatic productions each year, when they may be called on to do most anything from building scenery to making costumes.

Membership in Alpha Psi Omega, a national honorary dramatic fraternity, is earned by working for points in Stagecraft productions. Alpha Psi promotes interest in dramatic productions on Southern State's campus and encourages student participation in these productions. The fraternity annually presents the "Aardvark Variety Show."

The Marching Blue and Gold

The Southern State College marching Blue and Gold band, 72 members strong, reached a new high this year under the direction of Professor R. O. Oliver. Their precision drills and routines were presented before thousands during the football season both at home and away from home. The SSC band was guest band at Camden this year when they presented a routine during the half-time at the Lions Club charity game between Ouachita and Southern State. The band participated in parades both locally and out of town, and was invited to participate in many other activities in the area, including all home pep-rallies.

Blue Key Club

In the fall semester of '64, the Blue Key Club of Southern State was officially formed. The objectives of the Blue Key Club shall be:

To perform such on-campus service activities as to promote good public relations among administrative, academic and student bodies, as well as among them and the community at large.

To encourage communication among the administrative, academic and student bodies, and within the student body itself.

The membership of the Blue Key Club shall be ten seniors, ten juniors, and ten sophomores. Sponsors, Dr. Blue and Mr. Bibbler are always present at the bimonthly meetings.

Activities the Blue Key Club has participated in are: FHA, Dad's Day, All Sports Banquet, Homecoming Activities, and decorations for the Christmas Dance.

The Young Republicans Club, a progressive and energetic young organization, seeks to develop the Republicans at Southern State into an intelligent, aggressive, and cooperative group which participates in organized Republican activities, lends support to the Party's candidates, and gains practical political experience. The Young Republicans in this election year participated actively in the state and national campaigns and strived to awaken the campus to a fuller realization of the political issues. This year was just the beginning of a more active two party system on Southern State's campus.

Civic, Commerce Club

The Commerce Civic Club, better known as Tri-C, is an organization for business majors, and is the largest as well as one of the most active organizations on Southern State's campus. Each month the Tri-C has a business meeting and plans a social or schedules a guest speaker for the following month.

During the first semester the club sponsored a Sales Seminar, a Christmas Party, and a hayride. Second semester activities included an El Dorado businessman and Magnolia's mayor, John Harsh, as guest speakers. They sponsored a meeting of Future Tradesmen of Arkansas.

Each year the club chooses a Mr. and Miss Executive and presents a number of awards to outstanding business majors.

Southern State Football

A young Mulerider team finished third in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference beyond the expectations of experts. Coach Auburn Smith and Assistants Rip Powell, Delwin Ross, and Kenneth Schmidt began a rebuilding program this year that should carry the Rider's to a high finish next year. The team's AIC record was four wins and three losses, but Southern State lost to three tough non-league foes to finish four and six.

Coach Powell talks to Bruce McKinnon.

STATISTICAL LEADERS

This year, Johnny Tune led the AIC in total offense and passing. Johnny passed a total of 907 yards for 61 completions, but he lost 67 yards rushing to bring his total offense total to 830 yards. J. T. Chastain led rushers with 446 yards, and Jim Leonard was second with 408. Jim Leonard also led the team in receiving with 17 catches for 270 yards and punting with an average of 39.4 yards on 37 kicks. Travis Giles tied Jim Leonard for the receiving lead with 17 receptions for 300 yards. Bill McCall averaged 43.1 yards per kick but only kicked 20 times and did not qualify for the championship. The scoring lead went to sophomore halfback Jim Leonard as he scored 31 points. John Gaston, noseman from El Dorado, made the All-AIC team; Jim Leonard, center J. D. Williams, tackle Steve Elliot, and end Donnie Alpe, made honorable mention in the All-AIC.

With the leadership of W. T. Watson, the Southern State Basketball Team placed sixth in the AIC.

For the Riders Charles Jonse led the team in scoring and free throws, Danny Denton led in rebounding, and Larry Whitley in field goals.

This year the Riders completed a better over-all record (10-15) than they have in the past three years. There are no seniors on the team and only two juniors. With the record this year and the present freshmen and sophomores, the Riders should place even higher in the AIC next year.

Track

Coach Rip Powell will be counting on an excellent track season this year. The team has already gotten off to a fleeting start this season, by winning many events. The pre-Conference Relay's were won by Southern State over all competing teams.

High hopes are in store with six returning lettermen: Ernest Magby, Charles Humphries, Pat Pollan, Jim Leonard, Grady Beale, and John Selph.

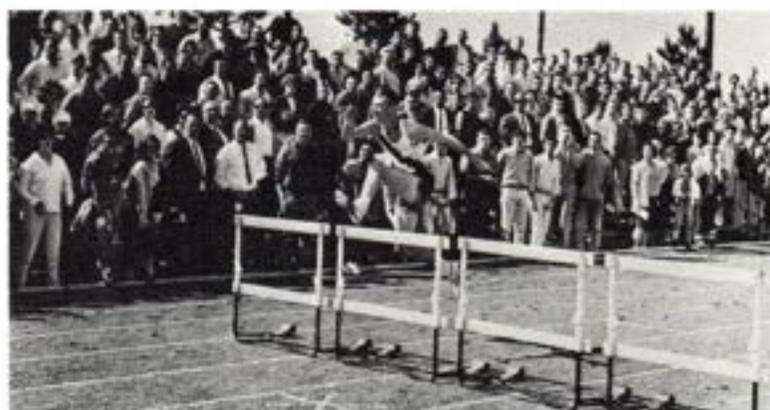

With this year's large and varied team, Coach Powell's hopes for an excellent track season should be fulfilled.

In Memorium . . .

"Another Time . . . Another Day"

The sadness felt by the friends of Walter Tate in the event of his death is an almost impossible feeling to express. Walter was a vibrant human being whose memory even the final curtain of death can not o'er-shadow. He was in tune with the world, acting and reacting to every situation with vitality, keen interest and sharp wit. Our sympathy goes out to those who have suffered most from this enormous loss of her tangible presence of one so loved and admired. Walter, who signed his own epitaph in the BRAY in his letter to the editor with "Another time . . . another day" will live in our hearts and memories until destiny reveals that inevitable time and day to us.

To All Who Contributed . . .

The 1965 MULERIDER is not my book alone. It is the composite effort of those who contributed both words and ideas to its being. It is fitting that you, the reader, should know who they are and the contributions they made.

My sincere appreciation goes to PAT RICHEY for her devotion in helping me by typing the majority of the copy for this year's annual. Her untiring efforts, long nights, and valuable week-ends she spent working for me, are due my utmost thanks for a job well done.

There is my business manager, DAVID WEST, who has done an excellent job on the ad section as well as being a great asset to me on the annual as a whole.

KENNETH NORRIS made an extremely valuable contribution with his layout drawings; experience for which he gained while working at Hurley Company. Outstanding work was done by staff members KAREN MOORE, BETH DANIELS, JOYCE MARTIN, JO WHEELIS, BETTY WOOD, ANN HILTON, and DEAN COMBS.

Hard work in the class sections was handled well by class editors LOGAN PERDUE, MARY JO ALLEN, BETTY LOGEROT, and TOMMY BARGER.

My section editors contributed valuable material and copy for each section. My thanks to BILL JENNINGS, ROGER SESSIONS, TOMMY EMRICK, and CHUCK HEYNOSKI.

The pictures that appear in this MULERIDER are of the highest quality. This is due to the efforts of my good friends JIM LEE and HOGAN COOPER of the Photographic Department.

There are others who deserve special recognition —

My advisors, MR. HOWARD FARRIS and MR. JAMES SMYTH, whose advice and guidance can not go unrecognized.

To BEN and ROGER RED of Ben Red Studio of Little Rock for their fine efforts and excellent quality in photographic work they have done for us in the many years they have served us.

MR. ALBERT COOPER of Cooper Studio of Magnolia who contributed excellent quality work at the last minute to fill my photographic needs.

MRS. STANLEY HIPPO of Public Relations whose great help, advice, and use of her office can not be overlooked by all editors of the MULERIDER — past and future.

CHARLES POLK for allowing us to work long hours in Caraway and for turning out the lights for me when I fell asleep at my desk.

To one of the finest men in the yearbook business — THOMAS WALKER of the Hurley Company. I will simply say thanks for allowing us so much time in turning in our copy after the deadlines.

To the many whose efforts if recorded would fill another book this size, I can only say thanks.

I blithely started out in September to tell you about Southern State. Perhaps these idealistic hopes became bogged down in the welter of late copy, inadequate pictures, missed deadlines. But if I have caught a glimmering of the Southern State student, a fact of life on this campus, then the existence of the 1965 MULERIDER is justified.

Our No. 1 Advertisers

The MULERIDER staff wishes that every participant of the Southern State campus life would look closely at these advertisers represented here in the Ad section. They have contributed much toward the success of the book and constitute a select group of very loyal 'rider' supporters. It makes good sense to trade with those concerns that are interested in you. Both the advertisers and the MULERIDER staff will sincerely appreciate you mentioning the MULERIDER when patronizing the advertisers.
